Parkstone Yacht Club

Crew members are allowed to park their cars at the Club but may be limited in busy periods. The subscription for 2009 is £133.00+£10.00 for a clubcard. The card allows for 10% discount on purchases made in the Bar or Restaurant and can be topped up anytime.

The Rule on Crew Membership reads as follows:-
“Any member being a boat owner may nominate a person whom he wishes to crew for him on a regular basis for temporary crew membership. A person nominated can then be admitted by the General Committee to such membership for a period not exceeding 12 months expiring on the next ensuing 31st December for a subscription as Determined by the General Committee. A person may be nominated for successive years but admission after the initial year will be dependent on the satisfactory completion of a log book during each previous season. A Crew member is not entitled to bring a boat to the club nor to own a boat or share of such boat kept at the Club nor introduce visitors”
